KENYA LIVESTOCK MARKETING COUNCIL

BACKGROUND

The Kenya Livestock Marketing Council (KLMC) is an umbrella organization of livestock producers and traders in arid and semi-arid areas of Kenya. It was established in 2000 as a non-profit making services organization to counter the challenges the livestock farmers are facing.

KLMC is a non-political, non-religious/commercial livestock pastoralists organization and is an affiliate of KENFAP, member of KEPISA, Kenya Chamber of Commerce, Joint Arab Chamber of Commerce and Nile Basin Livestock Council.

KLMC believes that pastoralism is the key economic activity in the Arid and Semi-Arid areas of Kenya and it can be harnessed to promote economic growth and development in these regions and reduce vulnerabilities.

KLMC recognizes the fundamental challenge facing the pastoralists is their inability to access better market for their livestock and livestock products. In order to overcome this challenge,

KLMC is working closely with other development partners and stakeholders to source for better market for livestock and livestock products and disseminate market information to producers and traders on a timely basis within the country, regionally and internationally.

VISION

KLMC envisions to be a leading, dynamic livestock marketing organization.

MISSION

To improve the livelihoods and resilience of pastoral communities and other livestock keeper/producers by providing services that effectively respond to their needs.

CORE VALUES

- Equity and fairness
- Accountability and transparency
- Commitment and cooperation
- Quality service to members
- Reliability
- Efficiency and effectiveness
- Teamwork
- Sound use of the natural resources and environmental conservation

OBJECTIVES

- 1) To strengthen the institutional framework for development and promotion of livestock production and trade.
- 2) To enhance market access for livestock producers and traders in order to reduce poverty and increase economic empowerment
- 3) To establish a system for providing timely, reliable and relevant market information
- 4) To influence county and regional trade policies to promote pastoral livelihood and livestock trade.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- 1) To strengthen the institutional framework for development and promotion of the livestock production and trade;
- 2) To enhance market access for livestock producers and traders in order to reduce poverty and increase economic empowerment;
- 3) To establish a system for providing timely reliable and relevant market information to influence the county and regional trade policies to promote pastoral livelihood and livestock trade;
- 4) To advocate for the interests and rights of members on livestock matters in collaboration with other stakeholders;
- 5) Build capacities of members to sustainably manage livestock related infrastructure, undertake community based disease surveillance and control measures, and enhance entrepreneurship skills;
- 6) Organize stakeholder consultative forums to harmonize livestock trade

KEY STRATEGIES:

In order to realize its plans, objectives and goals KLMC has developed Strategic Plan that guides and gives directions to the organization.

The strategies are geared around the four strategic pillars namely strengthening institutional framework for development and proportion of livestock trade;

Enhancing market access for livestock producers and traders; establishing a system for providing timely reliable and relevant stock market information,

To influence county and regional trade policies to promote livestock trade and also diversification of Products and Services by developing innovative products and services that meet the needs of livestock keepers.

KLMC LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE;

The organization believes in good leadership for effective and efficient service delivery to the pastoralists.

The organization is well linked from grassroots to national level. This enhances flow of information and facilitates faster consultation and conclusion on issues that arise occasionally across the region
